What is Family Group Decision Making?

- Family Group Decision Making (FGDM) offers families the opportunity to develop a plan with the most important people in their lives.
- FGDM can help solve problems or address important family concerns.
- The FGDM Coordinator acts as a guide throughout the process to ensure everyone involved is prepared; understanding guidelines for a successful Family Group Conference
- Families can be referred by a social worker, teacher, or other professional; they can even self-refer.
- Families may request entry into the process by simply calling us and asking to speak to a FGDM Coordinator.
